Animal Aid's Christmas Without Cruelty Fayre

10am – 5pm Sunday 3rd December 2006

Animal Aid's Christmas Fayre is like no other

The huge range of cruelty-free items on offer means that you can do all your Christmas shopping in one place; and banish your hunger with our delicious vegan food.

But the big plus – apart from the relaxed and friendly atmosphere – is that your money will be going directly to charities, campaign groups and ethical traders who are trying to make a positive difference in the world.

Goods on sale will include: fair-trade crafts, chocolates, cruelty-free cosmetics and toiletries, recycled goods, environmentally-friendly clothing, non-leather boots and shoes and seasonal cards and gifts.

Christmas Without Cruelty is organised by Animal Aid

All the fun of the Fayre

Come and join us for a fun day out for all the family on 3rd December. Among the highlights to enjoy this year (when you're tired from the wonderful shopping spree!) are a magician, contortionist, talks and videos. And you can be sure that none of the fantastic items on sale has been tested on animals, or includes any animal ingredients.

Animal Aid's Auction of celebrity memorabilia is legendary. Donated items will be sold to the highest bidder.

In previous years we have received items from Tony Benn, Alan Bennett, Julian Clary, Simon Cowell, Ricky Gervais, Chrissie Hynde, Joanna Lumley, Stella McCartney, Ewan McGregor, Graham Norton, Ann Widdecombe, Kate Winslett, Thom Yorke, Will Young, Benjamin Zephaniah, and a host of others. So don't miss out on a unique Christmas gift.
