

Do you want to encourage debate and critical thinking?

FREE

SCHOOL TALKS

Animal rights is an ideal topic for stimulating discussion and debate in subjects such as citizenship, food and nutrition, RE, English, geography and sixth form general studies.

Our inspirational school speakers are available to give talks and lead discussion on a wide range of animal issues . . .

animalaid.org.uk/education

Quotes from teachers

“The talk had a real impact and certainly got the students talking.”

Science teacher, William Ellis School, Camden

“The talk was excellent in all aspects.”

Deputy Head, Enfield County Upper School

“Excellent as always. Fantastic presentation – students were all engaged.”

Citizenship teacher, Smestow School, Wolverhampton

“It was a great lesson. I will book another session.”

Primary teacher, Herbert Morrison School, London

“It was absolutely super – interesting, informative and thought-provoking.”

PSHE Department, Greenacre School for Girls

Inform and engage your students

Animal Aid school talks:

Cover topics such as animal rights, veganism, animal farming and animal experiments

Can be delivered in-person or remotely using software such as Zoom or Teams

Use group activities and short films

Are tailored to meet your requirements and students' abilities

Can include cookery demonstrations in food and nutrition

Deal with issues in a sensitive way

Are available for students in Years 7 to 13

For more information:

Email: schooltalks@animalaid.org.uk

Call: 07761 145610

Visit: animalaid.org.uk/education

AnimalAid animalaid.org.uk @AnimalAid @animalaid_uk