Consumers have a right to cheap food from factory farms.	All animals should have the freedom to live outside and be happy.
Factory farms are important to the economy and provide people with jobs.	Factory farms damage the environment and contributes to climate change.
People need to eat meat and dairy products to stay fit and heathy.	It's cruel to confine animals in cramped sheds for the whole of their lives.
Animals inside factory farms are happy and are well looked after.	Animals don't need to be farmed for food as people can live perfectly healthily on a vegan diet.